

Regulations for the Maintenance of Public Order At Yeshiva University

I. Applicability

These regulations shall apply to all persons and registered organizations on any campus of Yeshiva University ("University") or any other property or facilities used by it for educational purposes.

These regulations do not preclude the University from setting forth additional standards of conduct.

II. Violations

It shall be a violation of these regulations:

A. To disrupt or obstruct (or attempt to disrupt or obstruct) any instructional, research, service, or other University operation or function, or interfere with (or attempt to interfere with) the lawful exercise of freedom of speech, freedom of movement, freedom of peaceable assembly, or other rights of individuals, by action including, but not limited to, the following:

1. by intentionally using or threatening physical force or violence to harass, abuse, intimidate, coerce, or injure another, or to cause damage to or loss of property;

2. by intentionally obstructing (or causing to be obstructed) the lawful use of, access to, or egress from University premises or portions thereof, or by making unauthorized entry upon or use of University property or facilities or by unlawfully remaining in or on the same;

3. by intentionally obstructing or restraining the lawful movement of another, or obstructing or restraining his or her lawful participation in authorized activities and events, including, without limitation, regular and special curricular activities, extracurricular activities, and employment interviews; or

4. by intentionally urging and inciting others to violate the provisions of this subsection A.

B. To refuse to comply with any lawful order of a clearly identifiable University official acting in the performance of his or her duties in the enforcement of these regulations.

C. To possess, carry, or use firearms, including rifles and shotguns,

Suspension in the case of a student may include the withdrawal of any or all University privileges or services, including class attendance, participation in examinations, or utilization of University premises or facilities as determined by the Office of Student Affairs.

3. Other Disciplinary Action. Students who violate these regulations will be subject to discipline by the Office of Student Affairs. Penalties may include written reprimand, probation for a stated period, restitution of damages caused, community service or dismissal from the University.